Future School Possible For North Part Of County

By JIM SANDS

The Canyon Independent School District is "looking over the possibility of obtaining a building site for a junior and senior high school in the future," Superintendent Jerry Jacobs said Wednesday.

The statement was made after The News questioned the superintendent regarding long standing rumors that the Canyon district was considering the future construction of higher level schools in the northern portion of the district, possibly near Gene Howe Elementary in South Amarillo.

Jacobs did not give a location of the proposed new site, nor would he speculate on a target date for the purchase of land or construction. "It's nothing definite... we're purely looking and speculating."

Interest in possible future school construction has been fanned due to a recent announcement that developers and home builders in South Amarillo are circulating a petition calling for the transfer of a part of the Canyon Independent School District to the Amarillo Independent School District.

In the school board meeting held Tuesday night, Jacobs and members of the board expressed opposition to handing over any of the CISD to Amarillo or any other school system.

The superintendent also said he doubted that residents of the area being sought for transfer would be agreeable to the change. "I don't think they could get half of those people up there to sign the petition," Jacobs told the board. He also expressed doubt that such a transfer would ever be approved by the Randall County School Board.

During the open portion of the meeting, the possible need of junior and senior high schools in the northern portion of the district was discussed.

Jacobs said that the school would make a projected need study regarding future enrollment for the area. He also forecast that the area around Gene Howe school would continue to grow.

Luther Lawless, principal of Gene Howe, told the board that some consideration should also be given to possible future need of more elementary schools in the area. This, he said, might be advisable before the construction of junior or high schools because "it takes two or three elementary schools to supply students for junior and senior high schools."

At one point during the discussion about the transfer of district property request, Jacobs said that while builders tend to think prospective buyers might balk at living in the CISD, "they might find it the other way around."

He indicated that many people have found that living in the CISD offered many more advantages than disadvantages.

Board member Ed Wieck questioned the feasibility of Canyon building more schools while some schools in Amarillo are closed from lack of students.

It was held by Jacobs that the Amarillo schools had apparently been disbanded due to the closing of the Amarillo Air Base and an economic and population depression that hit Amarillo several years ago. He added that Amarillo is now growing again.

One of the losses to the CISD, should a portion of the district be handed over to Amarillo, said Jacobs, would be about $29,000 in ad valorem tax revenues.

According to Jacobs, the area in question had been considered (See SITE, Page 10)

Miss Stark Is Named In Pageant

Blue-eyed blonde Donna Stark had tried for two years before she was named Miss Canyon of 1973 during the Saturday night Miss Canyon Pageant here.

Miss Stark, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Stark of Rt. 1, was crowned as Canyon's leading beauty by last year's Miss Canyon Julie Brantley following a review by judges of 48 contestants for the honor on the Canyon High School stage.

It was an exciting moment for a CHS senior who says she's never been very active in high school activities and really didn't expect to win.

Miss Stark had entered the Miss Canyon Pageant as a sophomore and again as a junior. Last year she was named to the Top 10, and she says she entered the contest again this year mainly because she was asked to compete by Kay Henderson, co-owner of Miss Stark's sponsor Tweedledee.

Miss Stark called the pageant "exciting," but indicated she had no great expectations this year. "It makes you feel good when someone asks you to be in a beauty pageant," she said.

But, she felt that since she isn't active in high school activities she wouldn't be selected.

Miss Stark is a native of Tulsa who came to Canyon as a fifth grader. She attended Rex Reeves Elementary School and Canyon Junior High before entering CHS.

During her years at Canyon High, she has entered the vocational cosmetology courses and hopes to receive her license upon graduation.

Then, following graduation, Miss Stark plans to try for a job in a beauty salon in Canyon.

Next fall, she has wedding plans and then she hopes to go to Houston and to college.

But, until then, as Miss Canyon she'll be competing in several other beauty pageants in the area.

Saturday night, for example, (See MISS, Page 10)

Brantley, Miss Stark was named Miss Canyon over 47 other contestants Saturday night at Canyon High School auditorium.

WT Professors Want Pres. Who'll Deal With Powers

The most important quality a new president of West Texas State University should possess is the ability to deal successfully with groups which have significant influence over the university, according to results of a survey of all faculty members.

The survey conducted by the Faculty Council was sent to all WTSU faculty members—a total of about 280—and was filled out and returned by 223 or about 80 per cent of the faculty.

Results of the survey will be given the screening committee which is now examining applications for the next president of the university.

Eighty-seven per cent of those completing the survey indicated they believe the faculty should have some voice concerning the suitability of candidates for president.

Faculty members were asked on the survey to indicate which four of 13 qualities or qualifications they believe to be of prime importance for a presidential candidate.

Eighty-seven per cent or 195 faculty members listed the ability to deal successfully with agencies such as the state legislature, the board of regents and the area business community as a quality of prime importance.

Three other qualities also received a majority of responses.

Fifty-one per cent of the respondents felt administrative experience at a major college or university is of prime importance. Fifty-four per cent felt an earned doctorate is of prime importance and 56 per cent felt a willingness to work closely with faculty in determining university policies is another prime factor.

Thirty-three per cent felt the ability to attract talented individuals to administrative and faculty positions is of prime importance.

Other qualities or qualifications which received (See PROFS, Page 10)

Controversial Combining Of Counties Proposed By South Amarillo Attorney

With public interest newly stirred in what county commissioners will do about the South Amarillo courthouse annex, a new controversy is in the wind which involves both Potter and Randall counties.

A South Amarillo attorney, who says he opposes construction of a new Amarillo courthouse annex, has called for a study to be initiated by county commissioners on combining Potter and Randall counties into one big county.

Robert D. Simpson brought to the fore again a controversial suggestion made two years ago by Rep. Ben Bynum that the two counties be combined.

His suggestion came in the form of a letter this week to County Judge Woody Pond with copies to all Potter and Randall commissioners and the area state legislators.

But, Simpson told The News this week his efforts at getting commissioners to consider his proposal will go beyond the letter stage.

Simpson said he is not a representative of an organized effort in South Amarillo to have the two counties combined.

"I've talked to a lot of people who think it's a good idea," he said, noting that the plan was given a nod of approval by Democratic representatives to their county convention last May.

"I think we need an in-depth study to see what economies can be accomplished," he said.

Simpson said he opposes construction of a new South Amarillo courthouse annex because such a project would "be a waste of money."

He advocates, rather, that commissioners hold up their plans to construct an annex and study the possibilities of combining the two counties.

Charging that placement of the county courthouse in Canyon creates inconvenience for the majority of the county taxpayers who live in South Amarillo, Simpson said he believes the greater number of persons would be served and great economies realized from combining the counties.

"I don't intend to let it die," he said of his proposal. "I haven't made any definite plans at this point but there are quite a few alternatives which could solve the problem."

Simpson said the moving the county seat to South Amarillo would not solve the problem, either, a problem which he sees as overspending for county government.

Texas Laws Are Tough On Courthouse Moving

Even if one or more county commissioners wanted to move the county courthouse to South Amarillo, they'd have a hard time doing it under current Texas law.

That's the opinion of Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen, who said this week several current statutes place considerable stumbling blocks in the way of any movement to have the county seat located outside of Canyon.

Dowlen's comments came after a county commissioner was quoted last week by an Amarillo television station as saying that the county courthouse should be in South Amarillo based on statistical data on population and tax input. The commissioner later affirmed his declared belief that Canyon should remain the county seat of Randall County.

Dowlen said one statute says no single city can serve as county seat for two counties.

Even so, three other statutes also place stumbling blocks in the way of any effort to have the county seat moved to South Amarillo.

"Since Canyon has been the county seat for more than 40 years, it would require a petition signed by a majority of the qualified voters of the county to require an election," Dowlen said.

And, because Canyon is within five miles of the geographical center of the county, an election (See TEXAS, Page 10)

The Patient Be Damned--Federal Attitude?

By CARROLL WILSON

The man represented the federal government—the Department of Health, Education and Welfare—as he sat in the small, cluttered office of D.F. York.

For three days he sat there rifling through mounds of records and forms and paper work, all the red tape the federal and state governments require of independently operated nursing homes like York's La Casa Nursing Home in Canyon.

The man from HEW was in York's office on a three-day inspection, two of which are required annually, and throughout the three days York asked him when he would inspect the patients and their rooms.

"I kept pushing him and I'd ask him when he was going to check the patients or the rooms," York said. "On the third day, he was sitting there and I said 'when are you going to check the patients?'"

"He stopped what he was doing, shook his finger and said 'Mr. York, I could care less about your patients. I don't even care if you have a corpse in there as long as you have the paper work straight. Your patients mean nothing.'"

That incident happened three years ago to D.F. York and he says the same attitude exhibited by the HEW inspector then is rife throughout the federal and state welfare system in regard to care for the aged in nursing homes.

The paper work, the forms, the red tape, these are the reasons nursing homes exist, York relates as the bureaucratic attitude. The patients be damned.

And, York says, independent nursing homes in this country are virtually tied to state and federal welfare programs which subsidize care for aged persons who are unable to pay for their own care or through Medicare.

The past for independent nursing homes irreconcilably tied to welfare agencies was bad, the present is worse and York sees a future when independent nursing homes won't even be able to operate.

The past for La Casa Nursing Home has been one of mounting federal and state involvement and a parallel pyramiding of red tape and therefore costs.

At the fore of any relationship York has had with either welfare bureaucracy has been the attitude that paper work takes precedence over patients. He points out that employers in the local and Amarillo welfare offices are exceptions.

La Casa Nursing Home was the first nursing home in the Panhandle licensed to handle Medicare patients with the federal government picking up the tab.

And, until about two years ago La Casa maintained its license.

Then, York said, he broke his relationship with Medicare because of the absurdity of federal demands and the resulting strain on his limited resources.

"Here's the straw that broke the camel's back," he related:

"They brought a lady in here who was about 86 and had a double pelvic fracture. She was blind and deaf and couldn't care for herself at all. She was just out of the hospital so I applied for Medicare for her."

Medicare officials several weeks later approved the request, but did not agree to pay retroactively. So, for those few interim weeks York had to pay expenses out of his own pocket with no reimbursement.

At the same time, Medicare officials said they didn't believe the lady was sick enough for a skilled nurse to be required for her care.

"I went ahead and accepted that," York said. "But, about three weeks later we got an old gentleman in here and he was in horrible shape. He was a cancer victim."

"So, I sent the papers in on him (to Medicare officials) and it took them about 18 days to make a (See PATIENTS, Page 10)

We've been accused of singling out one candidate for president of West Texas State University for undue publicity while not publicizing the other scores of candidates at all.

If you re-read our lead story of last Thursday carefully you will notice that the aspirations of Dr. T. Paige Carruth were not the subject of the story at all.

Use of power politics in quest of the WTSU presidency was the focal point.

Let any of the other candidates for the post submit a petition from powerful politicians along with their application and I can assure you we will do our best to see that their move is brought to public attention.

Influencing the choice of a WTSU president is the furthestest thing from my mind. Reporting the news is the business of this newspaper and that's what we intend to do.

Flourishing a petition signed by five legislators by a candidate for the WTSU presidency was equivalent to a show of bayonets at a polling place. We make no apology for having reported it.

Occupation of Wounded Knee makes me sick to my stomach.

The renegades who have pirated a town and "seceded" from the United States don't even represent the Indians of the area.

Chief of the Sioux tribe in that area told newsmen he was being hard pressed to keep his people from taking up arms and throwing the "trash" out of the little town named for the last great Indian battle fought in this country.

Like so many criminal members of other minority groups, these thugs are playing on being a "mistreated" minority.

The adventurers at Wounded Knee should be treated just the same as if they were bank robbers caught in the vault.

They should be given the opportunity to come out with their hands up and the offer should be made only once. This failing, the law should be enforced at whatever price exacted.

There's a great deal of talk about mistreated Indians and no doubt some are mistreated.

Most of the Indians I know, including many of my own kin-folks, wouldn't think of trading their two-car garages and color TVs for the travois, teepees and smoke signals of Cochise even if they had the opportunity.

One of the great problems of this country, and it may cause us to founder, is that our do-gooders are trying to make up to minorities by turning the country over to them whether they're qualified or not.

Ask any ranking official of the Post Office Department why the mail doesn't come through any more.

He'll likely tell you that the department is hiring on the basis of race — in direct violation of the Civil Rights Law of 1964 — and that unqualified and sometimes semi-literate people have charge of the great mail depots of this country.

Now days you need a lot of faith to mail something valuable. Sometimes it gets there and sometimes it doesn't.

A package mailed to me from Detroit in December hasn't arrived yet.

In government circles, color means more than credentials. No effort is being made to put the best qualified person on the job to ensure its success.

As college degrees are cheapened every day so minorities will have a "better break," credentials are coming to mean less and less.

If this trend is not halted, I see a grim future ahead for this country.

Grand Jury No-Bills Garrison

Randall County grand jurors returned a no-bill Tuesday on Joe Glenn Garrison, 19-year-old West Texas State University student, who had been charged with a misdemeanor charge of homicide by vehicle.

Garrison was charged with the offense Feb. 27, a day after a fatal accident occurred just outside Canyon at VFW Road and U.S. 60.

Garrison was the driver of a

Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen, after complaining the county is "getting the short end of the stick" in terms of the amount the state pays toward his salary, received permission Monday to prepare a resolution for county commissioners backing a bill which would change that situation.

Dowlen told commissioners a bill has been introduced in the state legislature which would considerably increase the state's allocation for his salary and thereby save the county about $11,000 per year.

The bill, Dowlen said, provides that criminal district attorneys in six Texas counties be allocated funds on a basis equal to fund allocations for constitutional district attorneys in many other Texas counties.

The state currently pays counties $15,000 for salaries of constitutional district attorneys. It pays $4,000 toward Dowlen's salary since he is a criminal district attorney.

"That's just not right," Dowlen said. "The county's getting the short end of the stick."

Commissioners approved a

Bill To Provide Hospital Site

Two area legislators have introduced companion bills in the Texas House and Senate to allow the West Texas State University board of regents to convey 10 acres of university land to South Randall Hospital District.

Carrying the bills are Senator Max Sherman and Representative Bryan Poff.

The 10-acre tract is located between the Lynette Apartments and Fourth Avenue on the west side of an acreage owned by the hospital district.

It is to be used for a hospital site.

late-model car involved in a wreck about 10:55 p.m. Feb. 26. A passenger in his car, Miss Judy Ann Parker, 18, of Amarillo, died shortly after the accident.

Three other persons were also injured in the collision.

The grand jury returned indictments on four other persons including Josepha Hollifield of Amarillo, who is charged with attempting to obtain a narcotic suggestion that he prepare a resolution for their signatures supporting the bill.

Dowlen said following the meeting that the provisions of the bill would not mean a salary increase for him, since he already makes more than $15,000 annually. It would mean, he said, a savings for the county on his salary.

Dowlen said he will look into the status of the bill later this month when he travels to Austin to appear before the court of criminal appeals on two cases appealed from courts here.

In other business, commissioners passed until next Monday a decision on whether to consolidate many of their separate bank accounts into one central account for streamlined administration.

Outside Auditor Bill Francis recommended the consolidation, which was suggested last week by commissioner Jim Fletcher.

He said the consolidation of the basic four county funds into one general fund would put an end to the current practice of borrowing money from different accounts to fund the general fund.

Francis noted the new consolidated procedure would mean the county auditor would prepare detailed statements on expenditures only rather than on revenue.

Commissioners also passed until next Monday any decision on insurance renewal.

Local insurance agent George Blackwell told commissioners their current insurance expires June 22. He also warned that premium payments can be expected to be almost three times as high as the county is currently paying.

Commissioners okayed the advertisement for bids for two spreader boxes for use in county road maintenance. Superintendent Joe West said the boxes should cost about $400 each.

Clyde E. Wright of 1119 S. Polk in Amarillo was indicted. He is charged with burglary in connection with the Feb. 22 break-in of an Amarillo home. Wright was arraigned Monday before Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson, who set bond at $1500.

Two other persons were arraigned on felony driving while intoxicated charges.

Four men, three from Hereford and one from Amarillo, charged last week with assault with attempt to rape, received no grand jury action. Their cases were passed until the next jury session.

commissioners discussed the hiring of an appraiser for the county tax office.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, during the regular session, said the current appraiser had retired and she

Piano Trio In Concert On Sunday

Works by Haydn, Beethoven and Turina will be performed by the West Texas State University Faculty Piano Trio in its first home concert of the season at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 18, in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Formed in 1967 and reorganized this year, the trio includes violinist Donald Todd, cellist Michael Matesky and pianist Nancy Van Hoose.

The trio has performed concerts in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas, being featured in performances sponsored by various civic groups and music clubs in the area and has given demonstrations before string students in public schools. The group's mission is twofold, says Dr. John Green, Dean of the School of Fine Arts, the performance of fine music in a four-state area, and the presentation of string techniques to public school students.

Todd holds bachelor's and master's degrees in music from Northwestern University and a doctorate in musical arts from the University of Illinois.

Prior to accepting a position at WTSU six years ago, Todd taught for 10 years at Eastern Illinois University. He has been a member of the Indianapolis Symphony, the Kansas City Philharmonic and the Oklahoma City Symphony. He presently is principal violinist with the Amarillo Symphony.

Matesky holds a Bachelor of Music Degree from the University of the Pacific and a Master of Music Degree from Northern Arizona University. He is currently working toward a doctorate in musical arts from the University of Washington.

A native of Los Angeles, he served as cello coach at Idyllwild School of Music for five years. He won the Emma Bartlett Award of the Compton, Calif., Civic Symphony in 1961, and appeared on statewide television in New York in an interview on coaching and conducting in conjunction with his visit with the Syracuse Symphony concerts with Arthur Fiedler.

Miss Van Hoose holds bachelor's and master's degrees in education from the University of Arkansas, where she was winner of the Tovey Award given to the outstanding piano student. She served as instructor and music coordinator in the Arkansas public schools and was an instructor in the music department at Arkansas.

Programmed for the Sunday appearance are Haydn's "Trio in G Major," Turina's "Trio No. 1, Op. 35," and Beethoven's "Trio in c minor, Op. 1."

2 Oklahomans Sign With WT

Darrell Blades and Mike Sutterfield, a pair of football standouts at Hooker, Okla., High School have signed pre-enrollment applications to attend West Texas State University.

Blades, a 6-0, 183-pounder with 4.7 speed in the 40-yard dash, earned honorable mention all-state honors both his junior and senior years. He was an All-District 1-A and All-High Plains Conference selection during both his junior and senior years.

"Darrell is the finest linebacker I've coached in 17 years and is also the finest I've seen in high school," said coach Chuck Steele. "He was in on 109 unassisted and 111 assisted tackles this past season."

As a wingback Blades scored 18 touchdowns, rushing for 893 yards and catching passes for 575 yards.

Blades, a B student in school, is the captain of the Hooker Fellowship of Christian Athletes huddle.

The 6-2, 223-pound Sutterfield earned both all-conference and all-district honors this past season as an offensive tackle. As a defensive end he was credited with 68 tackles and 75 assists.

Barbara Morrow and Leonard Kent of Canyon High School are two of assistant principal Willie McAlpin's many sponsors in the March of Dimes "Walkathon" to be held in Amarillo Saturday. The marchers will leave Western Plaza at 9 a.m., and have until about 5 p.m. to complete their 15 mile jaunt, collecting from their sponsors for each mile walked.

Absentee Voting Is Now Underway

Absentee balloting for the April 3 city commission election began Wednesday and begins Monday for the April 7 school board, hospital board and county school trustee elections.

Absentee voting ends March 30 for the city election, which sees two incumbents and a challenger running for two places on the commission.

City Secretary Bob Moore said applications for absentee voting may be obtained from the city hall. Applications must be requested in person except for persons now outside the city or physically disabled.

Incumbent Dr. Willis Harrison runs unchallenged in the city election while incumbent Felix Pierce faces challenger Dr. J. Pat Stephens for another seat.

Absentee voting opens Monday in the school district tax office in the county courthouse for the April 7 school and county school board elections.

Balloting for both elections ends April 3. Applications may be obtained from the school tax assessor-collector.

Seven persons including two incumbents seek election to the Canyon School Board. Incumbents Richard Pruett and Harold Erwin will take on Mrs. Pauline Hefley, David Kent, Dr. Wallace Johnston, Dr. Hiram Carr and Dr. J.L. Markham.

Only two positions are up for grabs in the election. Two positions are open on the county school board but exact election procedures are unknown at this time, pending a ruling by Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowling on who can and cannot vote.

Monday is also starting date for absentee voting for the South Randall County Hospital District election. Four seats are open on the hospital board and incumbents Mrs. T.G. Hull, O.H. Rahlfs, Vernon Harman, and Bill Sternenberg have all filed for re-election. In addition, George Blackwell, local insurance agent, has also filed for election.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it—and so do its readers.

Applications for absentee voting may be obtained from Ray Grimes at Nebbett Hospital. The hospital board election will be April 7.

Petition Still Out On Campus

More than 500 signatures have been gathered on the petition being circulated on the West Texas State University campus to have two students placed on the screening committee which is eyeing presidential candidates.

George Howell, WTSU student with the petition drive, said the petitions along with a letter will be sent Regents Chairman Cloyce Box and other regents by the end of this month.

Howell said he still feels the students at WTSU should have some say in the selection or screening of candidates for the job of president of the university.

Antique Show Will Benefit Opportunity

A Pampa antique show and sale scheduled later this month in that Panhandle city will again this year benefit the Opportunity Plan, Inc., at West Texas State University.

The 20th Century Cotillion Club of Pampa will sponsor its 11th annual antique show and sale March 23, 24 and 25. The show will feature everything from primitive and cut glass to dolls and furniture.

For the past 10 years, the club's show and sale has resulted in donation of about $13,000 to the Opportunity Plan, Inc., which provides financial aid for prospective college students.

The show will be open from 10:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. on March 23 and 24 and from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. on March 25. Tickets are available at the door at the M.K. Brown Auditorium in Pampa.

We're proud our seeds have earned the trust of farmers like these ...

Lloyd Coffey got a yield of 8400 pounds with Pioneer brand 828. A high yielding yellow endosperm variety, Pioneer 828 meant profit for Lloyd Coffey, Star Rt., Wildorado, Texas.

Charles Acker recorded an outstanding yield of 221 bu. per acre with Pioneer brand 3369A. A top yielder, 3369A was a moneymaker for Charles Acker, 1106 Hillcrest, Canyon, Texas.

Because we were the first company to commercially produce hybrid corn and with 17 years of work on sorghum, we know a lot more about hybrids and how to make crosses that really yield. We've had longer to test and re-test our varieties. We've stuck with some of our early crosses, and we keep developing new ones to fit every growing condition imaginable.

For the North Plains we recommend these sorghum, corn and forage varieties ...

Pioneer brand 8417—new yellow endosperm sorghum—champion yielder in medium maturity class—large open heads—does well on all types of land.

Pioneer brand 820—good yielder under stress—outstanding with plenty of water and fertility—MDM resistant—full season.

Pioneer brand 846—excellent drought resistance—MDM resistant—medium maturity—our most popular sorghum variety.

Pioneer brand 3369A—champion-class corn favorite—tolerant to northern and southern blight—good ear retention—heavy grain yielder.

Pioneer brand 3306—most popular corn hybrid on the High Plains—tall with outstanding stalks and ear retention—good yielder on dry or wet land.

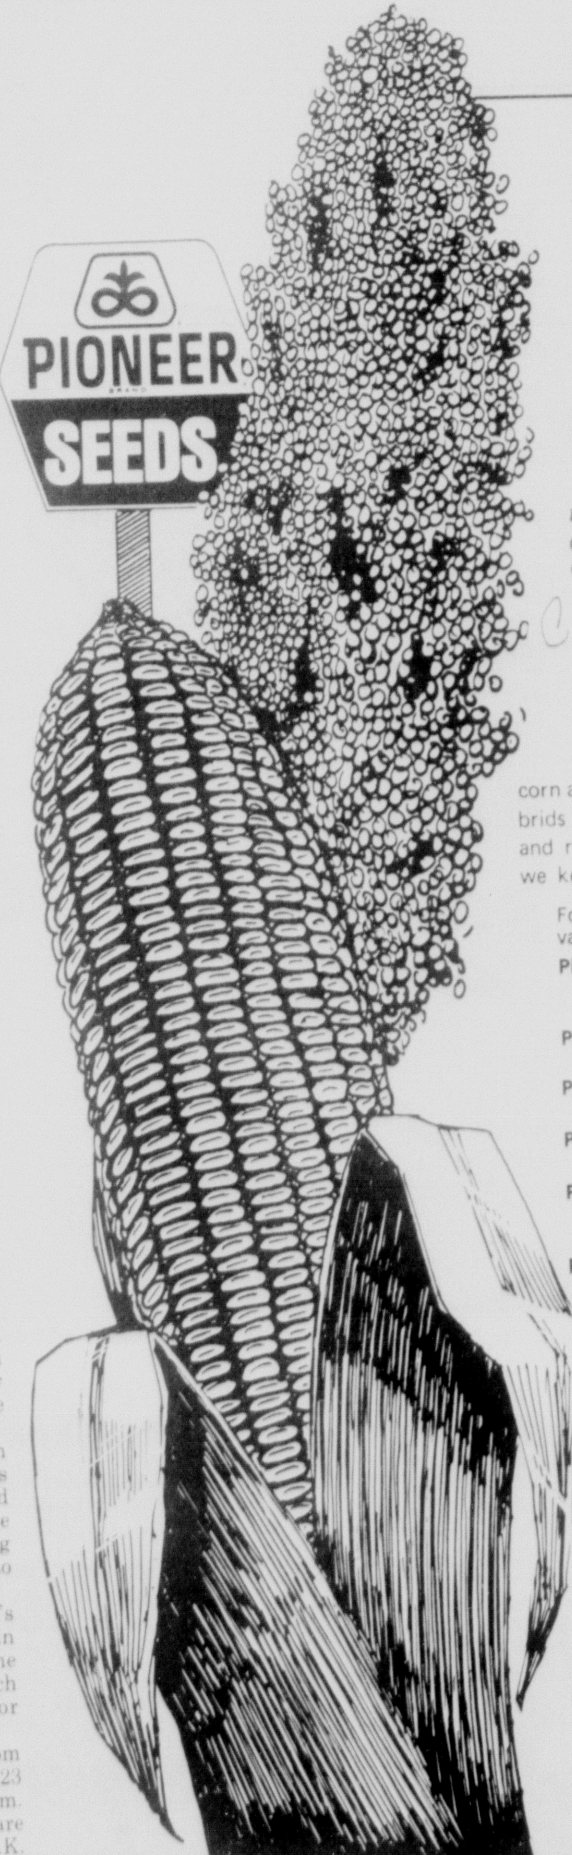

Pioneer brand 988—sorghum sudangrass hybrid for pasture, greenchop, hay or haylage—ready to cut or graze in a little more than a month—regrows again and again all summer with adequate moisture and fertilizer.

When you choose a hybrid for your land, choose one from the company that started it all ...

Gospel Group
To Play Sunday

Gospel rock artist, composer and arranger Gary Tosti and the Fellowship will be a part of the worship hour of First United Methodist Church on Sunday morning, March 18, at 10:45 a.m.

A pianist, saxophone player and singer, Tosti and his four piece group are the latest sounds from Southern California's gospel rock revival.

Fellowship's production is original and uses a variety of rock styles. It is a new birth of gospel jazz-rock. Their recent performance includes participation in concert with entertainer Pat Boone at Disneyland.

Lead singer for the Fellowship is Kay Tosti, a graduate from Pepperdine University of Los Angeles, who was selected to the Queen's court in the Miss Raleigh North Carolina beauty pageant. She was also a production assistant for a National Broadcasting Company news program.

The five piece rock group, having previous television and radio experience, brings to stage a kind of music that may need a new coined phraseology.

Describes Tosti, "Some have termed our music jazz-rock, but I refer to it as Fellowship-rock." Adding, Fellowship-rock describes the blending of soul, blues, jazz and solid rock, without disturbing the group's mystical emphasis.

Performer Mike McKinnon, 19, of Anaheim, California, gives a versatility of vocal and string performance as lead guitarist, while Dennis Richards, 20, of Inglewood, California, plays bass guitar.

Richards, who is 6'11", was an all-league prep football player. Paul Johnson, 19, Anaheim, is the Fellowship's drummer. He is a water polo and swimming enthusiast.

The sought-after Fellowship has performed for television audiences in Long Beach, California, and has returned engagements to famed Melodyland Recreation and Convention Center in Anaheim, across from Disneyland.

In addition, Fellowship has a variety of performance portfolios that include Catholic masses with rock music and California prisons where music soothes the human spirit.

A husband and wife team, Gary and Kay Tosti, have performed in Europe and Central America with two of Melodyland's music tours, and have performed in the Orient in a USO Tour under Pepperdine University auspices. The Fellowship has scheduled a Mediterranean concert tour in July.

Erwin, first runner-up, Donna Stark, Miss Canyon, Tonya Hunter, second runner-up, and Anna Bland Thompson, third runner-up.

Umbarger News

Mrs. Friemel Heads Altar Society

By REBA RAEFF
HELLO, AGAIN, FROM Umbarger. Lewie Raef, the official "rain measurer," in Umbarger announces that we had 2.43 inches of rain in Umbarger, over Friday and Saturday. Wasn't that just about the nicest rain we've ever had in March? We sure did enjoy it.

ST. MARY'S ALTAR Society and Christian Mothers held their regular meeting, Tuesday evening, March 6, at 8 o'clock. Election of officers for the 1973-1974 year was held. Officers are Mrs. R.E. Friemel, president; Mrs. Vincent C. Meyer, vice-president; Mrs. Joe Grotegut, treasurer; Mrs. Carl B. Hartman, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Ronald Haschke, historian, were all re-elected by acclamation. Mrs. Ed Wieck was elected secretary for a two year term. Reba Raef was appointed as reporter by President Friemel.

DELEGATES TO THE Diocesan Council of Catholic Women Spring meeting, to be held in Hereford in early April, are Mesdames R.E. Friemel, Ronald Haschke and Max Hoffman.

A FILM ON birth defects, provided by the March of Dimes was shown. Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Ed Grabber, Joe Grotegut and Carl B. Hartman.

UMBARGER HAS SOME more new great grandparents.

Max and Rose Hoffman have their first great grandchild. Grandson Galen Heymer and wife Judy, have a new little son. Charley and Martha Heymer of Amarillo are the grandparents. Congratulations to all you lucky people.

OTIS AND PAULINE Farmer and daughter, Jackie, from Los Alamos, New Mexico, visited Pauline's parents, the Henry Brachts over the weekend. They also visited with the Jack Brandts. Also visiting the Brandts was son Dwight, from Texas A&M University. Dwight is "between semesters."

RECENT VISITORS IN the Carroll Adams home were Kenneth Adams, from Spokane, Washington and P.F.C. Gerald U. Adams, from Ft. Meade Maryland.

POSTMASTER AMALIA BRACHT announces that from now on the Post Office window will close at 9 a.m. on Saturdays. So, you'll have to get those cards and letters in a little earlier. The new hours are effective starting March 17.

AT THE MEETING of the Umbarger Community Association, held March 8, plans were made to sponsor a volleyball tournament, the dates to be announced later. Restrooms for the community building were discussed. After the business meeting, dominoes and cards were enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Sylvester Batenhurst, Marion Hicks and Miss Gertrude Friemel.

LENTEN SERVICES ARE being observed in St. Mary's Church. Each Wednesday evening at 7:30 Mass will be offered, and on Friday evenings we will have the Stations of the Cross, followed by Benediction. We would like to share our Lenten devotions with all of our non-Catholic neighbors and friends in the Umbarger community. You are welcome to come to any or all of our services.

THE CHILI SUPPER and bingo sponsored by St. Mary's Altar Society and Christian Mothers was well attended, not only by our own parishioners and neighbors, but by friends from Canyon, Nazareth, Amarillo and Widorado. THE DON RAEFFS came down Sunday and visited with us. We enjoyed playing "42" with them.

WELL, FOLKS, THAT'S about all for tonight. If you have any news for my column, please feel free to call me at 499-2164.

Happy News

Vincent Venhaus Elected Jaycee President--Installation Is April 28

By MARY NEAL HENRY

WE HAVE SEVEN candidates running for three positions on the Happy School Board. LaVenna Jackson is the first woman to file in Happy. The Canyon News interviewed these and has a story concerning their qualifications. Find it and read it. Consider your votes carefully. Our children's future rests with your decision.

CORRECTION: WAYSIDE GRAIN was the Volleyball team who won third place in the Happy's Volunteer Firemen's Annual tournament.

JAMES VICK, C. R. Wesley, James Stockett, Larry Simons, Wayne Pearson, Bob McDonald, Keith Hartman, and Dick Foster are the members of this team, the Wayside Warriors. To be honest, these are the members I had listed for the third place team. In my haste, proof-reading, I changed the players' names instead of the team name. (I always do things the hard way). That's me, 100% wrong.

MR. BILL EUBANKS came home from the hospital on Wednesday of last week. He is steadily regaining his strength.

MRS. J.D. Roberts came home from St. Anthony's on Monday. Her surgery was successful and less than anticipated.

CHARLES HARTER is a patient in St. Anthony's Hospital.

NEAL BRYAN HAS been named to the dean's honor roll for the 1972 fall semester at Abilene Christian College where he is a senior music major. Neal had a 3.77 average on a 4.0 scale.

VERNON WILHELM WAS one of 97 who left Tuesday morning for Waterloo, Iowa. The group toured the John Deere factory there. They attended a banquet Tuesday evening in the administration building. Later the group flew to Moline, Illinois, and toured the all-electric foundry. Wednesday afternoon they toured the combine and harvesting plants. The assembly of all parts of the machinery was demonstrated. The group returned late Wednesday night. This charter flight took only about two hours each way.

CHARLEY VASEK, Vernon's brother-in-law from Hereford, was also included in this tour.

WILLIE BUTLER ATTENDED the Eastern Star Chapter in Dimmitt Tuesday evening.

AMANDA SHIPMAN WAS six years old on Wednesday, March 7. Her aunt, Nan Earle Geathreux of Altus, Okla., sent her a Raggedy Ann Cake at least two feet high for her birthday. Guests to help celebrate with Mandi were Gracie and Frank Tiley, Lena Bell Cate, Inez and Hollis Shipman, Jeanne and Ronnie Johnson and their Jay and Roxie, Lily and Jerry Shipman of Hereford, Angeline Henry, and Sara and George Tiley and their Jim.

SKIP SIMONS WAS hostess to her bridge club last Thursday. She served salads for lunch to Mary Johnson, Sara Tiley, Jan Irlbeck, Dottie Foster, Alice Middleton, Jeanne Johnson and Connie Johnson. Skip also served cake with whipped topping.

HAPPY JAYCEE-ETTES who attended the Sit-In-Hen at Berger on Wednesday of last week were Betty Stockett, Donna Bryan, Dottie Foster, Joy Freeman and LaVenna Jackson. Three won door prizes. Berger's chief of police gave an informative drug program.

HAPPY JAYCEES AND Jaycee-Ettes who attended the Plainview Installation Banquet Saturday night were Susan and Lloyd Rahlfs, Kaye and Vincent Venhaus, Dottie and Dick Foster, Joy and Norman Freeman, Donna and Dean Bryan and Jim Whitlow. Happy won the travel trophy!

HAPPY JAYCEES ELECTED officers for the coming year. These officers will be installed next month: president, Vincent Venhaus; vice-president, Dick Foster; second vice-president, George Tiley; secretary, C.R. Wesley; treasurer, Dean Bryan; directors, Gene Shipman and Bill Whitlow; and state director, Lloyd Rahlfs. This installation banquet will be April 28 at 8 p.m. in the Happy Jaycee Hall. The meal will be barbeque catered by Sutphens. Berry Thatcher's Happy Medium Band will be playing for the dance following the installation. Jaycees heard this band at the district convention.

HAPPY JAYCEE-ETTES have 10 girls who have earned a "Feather-Your-Cap" and three who have "Spoke," a first year award. Ten have also won travel awards and "Have Your Say" awards. The Jaycee-Ettes elected officers at their meeting Tuesday night. New officers are:

President, Dottie Foster; vice-president, Skip Simons; secretary, Betty Stockett; treasurer, Susan Rahlfs; state director, Chris Ritter; director, Sara Tiley. Happy Jaycee-Ettes spent this meeting, except for the election of officers, working on their scrapbook. This book will be entered in competition at the state convention in Austin in May.

DEBRA JACKSON WILL participate in the Amarillo walkathon for the March of Dimes on Saturday. Happy Jaycee-Ettes donated to the March of Dimes because of Debra's walk.

MARILYN COPE, BRIDE elect of Brad Raymond, was honored with a bridal shower, March 10, in the home of Mrs. Dan Tucker, 201 Buffalo Trail in Tulsa.

MRS. TUCKER GREETED the guests and presented them to the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Van Cope; the bride-elect; and the groom's mother, Mrs. A.B. Raymond. They wore corsages of white roses and feathered mums.

RAMONA RAYMOND REGISTERED guests at a round table covered in white organza and decorated with a yellow rosebud in a crystal vase.

THE OVAL SERVING table was covered in white organza and centered with a large floral arrangement of assorted yellow flowers. Misses DeAnn Todd, cousin of the bride-elect, and Gaylene Raymond, sister of the future groom, served sherbet punch and lemon-filled Angel roll from silver appointments.

THE HOSTESS TABLE was covered with a yellow and white checked cloth. A yellow plaque on which the names of the hostesses were lettered in black and bordered in white daisies stood on an easel on the table. The hostess gift was a nine piece set of stainless steel cookware.

HOSSESSES FOR THE occasion were Wilma Hale, Dovie Harman, Jo Reiss, Mary Del Toles, Ruby Rodgers, Aleta Flynt, Evelyn Bookout, Jessie Rawson, Mary Ann Magness, Donna Ann Johnson, Lillie Tucker, Jessie McKone, Virgie Webb, Linda Joy, Erlene Rogers, Glendene Abernathy, Betty Owens, Jean Bates, Lena Powell, Aileen Cansler, Judy Shipman, Mary Neal Henry, Anita Cox, Jewel Crawford and Mary Tucker.

MARILYN COPE AND Brad Raymond opened their bridal gifts on Friday evening in the Dan Tucker home. Kirksey Cope, Dovie Harman, Evelyn and Don Bookout and Mary and Dan Tucker shared the occasion.

TWO GIRLS VOLLEYBALL teams from Happy made the finals in the Canyon tournament. Hardaway Butane lost their first game to Skip's Scraps (a team that used to be the Kawasaki's); won their second against the American National Eaglettes and advanced to the finals to play for consolation. They almost had it. They won one, Prairie Grain won one, and the last game was a close one—but it went to Prairie Grain. Happy Welding won their first game, Prairie Grain, and lost to Taylor & Sons; but they played Saturday night for third place and lost to Love Brothers. Shaw's Custom Farming won over Allied Glass on Thursday and then lost to Taylor & Sons. Because of their position in the bracket, this eliminated Shaw's team. The men's team of Texas Tops played for consolation on Saturday evening, but it just wasn't a happy night.

THE EIGHTH GRADE class had a social at the Activities Center on the W.T. campus. Their sponsors were Sherry and Dwain Walker, Josephine Garcia, and Della Venhaus. Chuck, Rod and David Walker also got to go to the party. After all the activity, the group ate at the Village.

THE TRI STATE RODEO Club met last week to discuss practice sessions and make plans to attend Muleshoe and Hereford

Tri State Rodeos.

SHERRY STARKEY ON- LY lacked six points winning the All-Round Saddle at Muleshoe. She tied for second. Sherry won first in the pole bending, fourth in barrel racing and sixth in goat tying. Chris Pearson won sixth in chute dogging. Ken Henry and Valerie Tipps also participated at Muleshoe. Mark Hargrave and Wendy Sims went to participate, but Muleshoe had received their entries too late.

LEE DONNELL AND Richard Kennedy took the R.A. Knight group to the Activities Center at West Texas University last Friday evening. This group included Leslie Weavers, Danny Bell, Tim Parker, Jim Bob Sims, Robert Cole, Hal Toles, Mike Weavers, Neal Odom, Ronald Harvey, and J. Horace Mc-Carley.

JIM AND ANDY Hand, Andy Butler, Allen Fowler, Ronnie Jackson, Tommy Tipps, Mike Sims, Albert Schoenenberger, and Lee Moore left Sunday morning for the Lubbock Fat Stock Show. They'll return about press time.

AT A RECENT UIL Band Contest held in Canyon, Brenda Parker won a "one" in French horn; LeRoy Garcia won a "two" in a Coronet solo; Jana Wallace won a "two" in alto saxophone; Cathy Parker won a "two" in a saxophone solo; Eddie Wilson, Stanley Morrison, Marilyn Venhaus, Ronnie McDonald, Connie Hand and Karen Hinton, won a "two" sextet; Beverly Dowd, Becky McCarley and Donna McDonald won a "two" in a clarinet trio; Coleen McCarley, Johnnie Wilson and Pam Andrews played a flute trio.

ROXIE JOHNSON WAS two on Tuesday, March 13. She was honored with a birthday party on Monday evening. Cake (chocolate) and ice cream were served to Gracie and Frank Tiley, Cone and Sweetie Johnson, Lena Belle Cate, Sara and Jim Tiley, and Judy, Raphe and Mandi Shipman.

THE HAPPY AGRICULTURE Club met Monday evening to discuss the much needed panels for Happy's Junior Fat Stock Show. The county donated many of the materials for these panels, but money is being collected for the remainder of the materials and for the labor. Construction has already begun on these panels, but donations are still needed. Contact George Tiley or Ervin Wilson and make your donation now.

HAPPY 4-H CLUB met Monday evening. Debbie Parker introduced Harold Eakes of Southwestern Public Service for the evening's program. Harold gave a very informative program on electricity and emphasized caution in all phases of anything conducting electricity. Aaron Parker, vice-president, called the meeting to order. J.T. Henry led the pledge to the American flag and the 4-H pledge. Christy McCaslin gave the inspiration for the evening. Kim McCaslin called the roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting. Judy Carlisle discussed and reminded everyone about their foods records and the County Food Show on Saturday at the Highland Elementary School in Tulsa. About 20 to 23 will enter the Foods Show this Saturday. Because of the weather only thirteen were able to enter the 4-H Foods Show at Happy last Saturday. No prizes were given, but Judy Carlisle gave constructive criticism to each demonstration.

THE HAPPY 4-H is still in need of an organizational leader. Doesn't some parent in this community feel the call to accept this position of service?

WILLA AND SIMON Elliott and Phylla and Foster Harman recently returned from a trip which lasted slightly more than a week. They visited Cindy Toles and Joan Harman in Austin and Phil and Lynn Davis and their Kelly and Alexander in Houston. Willa and Si attended the rodeo and Fat Stock Show in Houston. They then traveled to Louisiana and spent three days at the Mardi gras and sight seeing. This included a Mississippi River Boat cruise. The Harman and Elliotts returned through Jackson and Shreveport where they visited Patsy (Harman) and Gerald Merrill, and Bennington, Okla., where they said "hello" to Juanita and Corliss Curry. They tried to call Irene Uselding but were unable to contact her.

WILLA JANE AND Jim Mc-

Manigal were in Wichita Falls on Monday and Tuesday where Jim judged a stock show. Christy stayed with her grandparents, Willa and Si Elliott.

THE CHURCH OF Christ Revival begins this Sunday, March 18, and lasts through March 21. Brent Adams of Durant, Okla., will be their revival speaker. Their Sunday school time is 10 a.m. and worship service on Sunday morning is at 10:50 a.m. and 6 p.m. Week-day services will begin at 7:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Ann and Bill Looney tell me that all are welcome.

THE METHODIST LAY Witness Mission is April 6, 7, and 8. Many preparations have already been made for this weekend.

THE BAPTIST REVIVAL is May 6 through May 13. Their evangelist is Wayne Tucker of Houston.

THE ARNEY "42" party was cancelled last Saturday evening because of the rain (and we must have had about three inches). It has not been rescheduled, but you watch for date and time.

THE HAPPY JAYCEE-ETTES Swap Meet is March 24 in the Jaycee Hall in Happy. Admission is $1 (or $3 for a table of "wares") and time is from 1 to 4 p.m. Come and swap anything as many times as you want to. Should be fun. (You can visit all afternoon). Judy Shipman is chairman of this project. See ya at the Swap Meet!

Mrs. Burkett Now A Certified Public Accountant

A South Amarillo woman who works in Canyon has received her certification as a public accountant following extensive studies, a lengthy test and considerable on-the-job experience.

She is Mrs. Sheila Burkett, employed as an accountant with E. T. Cummings, Certified Public Accountant, the past four years.

Mrs. Burkett had passed the C.P.A. exam in November of 1971 and was issued the certificate following two years of accounting experience with the Cummings firm located at 300 15th Street.

In order to meet the rigid requirements of the certification, Mrs. Burkett graduated from the University of Texas at El Paso and later took accounting at West Texas State University.

The four-part exam, which required two and one-half days to complete, covered auditing, practice, theory and business law. Testing is nationwide with grades submitted to the Texas State Board of Public Accountancy for final certification.

According to Mrs. Burkett, while there are more men than women in the C.P.A. ranks, the field of accounting is one in which women have been widely accepted professionally. She said there are two C.P.A. associations for women.

The certificate was presented to Mrs. Burkett in ceremonies held Monday night at WTSU in which about 15 others, including a Tulsa woman, received similar honors.

According to area accountants, only one other woman in Canyon had ever held the distinction of being a Certified Public Accountant, Mrs. Virginia King Allen, former business instructor at WTSU.

"She is really excellent," Cummings said of Mrs. Burkett. "We're real proud of her. She has an excellent record and was a good student."

Mrs. Burkett credited Cummings with contributing greatly to her success in reaching the certification. "He taught me a lot," she said.

When asked why she had worked so hard for the honor, Mrs. Burkett said, "I wanted to be an accountant and decided to get the best qualifications I could."

Mrs. Burkett's husband, Jim, is an appraiser with the Federal Housing Administration. They live in the Gene Howe area of South Amarillo.

WT Tracksters To Open Sat.

After having their outdoor season delayed by one week, the West Texas State University Buffaloes open Saturday in the Arlington Relays.

The Buffaloes of coach Bob Kitchens were to have run Eastern New Mexico University and Wyoming in a three-way meet Saturday at Portales, but that meet was called off because of rain and snow.

The University of Texas at Arlington is hosting the one-day, three-division meet. Besides the eight-team University division, there is a high school and a high school sophomore division.

Other collegiate teams entered in the meet, which opens with 9:45 a.m. prelims, are Lamar University, Louisiana Tech, New Mexico State, Northwest Louisiana, Oklahoma State and Texas Tech.

It has been three weeks since the Buffaloes have competed in a meet and then they were fourth in the Missouri Valley Conference Indoor Championships.

West Texas captured a pair of first places in the MVC indoor meet. Carl Brown won both 50-yard hurdle races and Cecil Hood high jumped 6-4 for a first place.

E.T. Cummings, C.P.A., and Mrs. Sheila Burkett with the certificate showing her to be a Certified Public Accountant. The honor was bestowed on Mrs. Burkett Monday night in ceremonies held at West Texas State University.

Four Initiated Into Psi Chi

Four West Texas State University students have been initiated into Psi Chi, the national honor society in psychology.

Patsy A. Kimbrough and Mark Englander, both Amarillo juniors, Nan McBrayer, Hereford junior, and Elna Ramsey, Levelland senior, were those honored.

Psi Chi was organized in 1925 under the sponsorship of the American Psychological Association, Washington, D.C., to recognize scholarship in the field of psychology.

Over 300 chapters have been established on campuses in all the states. The West Texas State University chapter was established in October, 1971.

News Brief

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Ruthart and Mrs. Mae Johnson recently attended the Chamber of Commerce Banquet at Claude. Mrs. Johnson's son-in-law Charlie Hughes was named Citizen of the Year. He and his wife Orla, former Canyon residents, have lived in Claude for about seven years.

Palisades Palaver Church Will Be Dedicated Sunday

By MILDRED TURNER
SOMEONE CALLED AND said you really meant it about the water in the creek, it came down almost before we were ready! Several have teased me about that one. It was only two weeks ago.

I GOT MY geraniums potted in the outside pots this week. Not because I had spring fever, but because my planter by the large east window was getting like a massive jungle. I really dislike that butchering them up but it is necessary for them to multiply.

Blackberry Winter
By Jack Clark
When robins keep the elm tree busy.

And the wind is southerly and full of spring
And ponds, iced all winter, start to melt.

There'll come a day of dark and scudding clouds
And maybe snow to dust the hills with powder

And startle buds that ventured out too soon.
Old heads will nod, and smiles exchanged.

Across the room the new-lighted fire will say,

"We could have told you so, never trust the spring."

Blackberry winter has to have its time

Before the warmth comes up north to stay."

ENJOYED VISITING

CLEO Farr one beautiful afternoon recently. I think Cleo will be interested in coming to our home demonstration club. She attended the landscape programs a couple of years back here at my house. Cleo is Kathy Fleming's mother and cute little Christy Fleming's grandmother.

I have not met her other grandchildren. She had been working on some of her lovely patch-work quilts. As we chatted, she showed me her spreads she just finished. She has a sunny garden spot and an interesting view any direction you may look.

(Would some of you neighbors drop by and talk to her about a load of fertilizer when you are hauling for yourself?) I especially liked a cozy little nook enclosed and facing the creek. This would be such a pleasant place to read, write, meditate or just look out at the birds, squirrels or hill side.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Doug Hooker on March 16.

WE HAD A small family-size Birthday Coffee for Garland Friday evening serving his favorite chocolate cake. (The one on the cocoa box). We played "Perquackey" and "Pollyanna." He has stopped saying he is 39 and says he is 40 now. His math was always terrible!

JACKIE HORNE SAID she and J.R. were in Albuquerque the same weekend Belva and I were. We tramped over some of the same paths in Old Town but did not see each other. They attended the Motorcycle Races and explored the city and country in that area.

THE F.R. JOHNSONS happened to be right on my trail as I was out walking recently. Since I had not met them, I stopped to say "hello." We had a pleasant chat as they showed me around, the improvements they plan and are currently making.

I'm sure we will be seeing each other often as they are just past the Koots on the curve. Mr. Johnson is that mystery man (I could not identify) who was working on the roads with his tractor.

SICK LIST: EDITH Stevens is still among the living but has been very ill with the flu and a virus. She is still weak but strolled down the street to visit Pearl Vaughn who is busy clearing her a garden spot. Pearl has also been sick for a day or two last week.

LITTLE BRENT BAILEY was very sick with high fever, sore throat but reported he was fine today. Ernest Carlile has been to the doctor twice lately but he, Margie and Marcella were out walking this morning. I was even in the doctor's office last week. After losing around for awhile he says, "Love some weight!"

ITALKED TO Neil Moore today (she had missed church with a terrible throat). Although her voice was a little raspy her sense of humor was great! She gripped that she didn't have time to be sick and besides Thursday is the day we do our terrariums. She will be there.

SORRY ABOUT MY report on the meeting at Joyce's. I found one page of notes I'd left out (the middle) where we did our moonstoning, ate finger foods, etc., etc. It sounded a little odd. Since Elnora Boothe did our scrap book I've been saving some of these for us to read twenty years from now. Although our club seems fairly new we are about six years old now. We are so appreciative of what each one is doing to help our club. Beverly Norman has helped so much in the way of crafts. Becky Hall is so good to help us when we call on her.

THE EDWARDS HAD about fifteen guests over the weekend. Besides the children in Amarillo, they enjoyed their daughter Gloria Floyd Lane, their sons Allen and Barry from Lubbock. Lena said Lum is getting "fish-ing fever" again.

I MET A nice couple at church here a while back. They are Vera and Clifford Griffin (bought the Parker house). They have one child and keep foster children in their home. Vera says it is very rewarding to keep these children, to give them a home of love, but so hard on you to give them up.

The Griffins are one of the families who have been working very hard at the church out here. They own the Amarillo Seamless Surfaces. It sounded interesting as she explained the material is a polyurethane base used to make seamless floor coverings. He is also a carpenter. We are happy to have you Griffins in our neighborhood.

THE PALISADES COMMUNITY Church does not have an official name yet. We had around 54 last Sunday. Used a borrowed organ which Beverly Strecker played. Jarrell Moore taught the adult class. Bro. Floyd Lane from Lubbock brought the morning and evening messages. Lots of eager young voices joined in singing of the hymns. Among those attending were the Edwards, Guesses, Moores, Streckers, Inmans, Valerie McClendon, Griffins, McGahes, Tony Mitchell, Mike Hooker, Mrs. Story, Dustmans, to name a few.

I'M SURE MANY of you are regulars at other churches which is fine but feel welcome to come here any time. A number of families out here will be regulars and the children and young people's group is growing rapidly. By the way, the Streckers are adding a little one to the Sunday School in May.

THIS NEXT SUNDAY, March 18, there will be a Dedication Service for the church, a covered dish luncheon and an old fashioned sing-song. The singing will start about 2 p.m. Bring your musical instruments, song books, and perhaps an extra chair. We may have to move outside but that will be fine also. See you then neighbor.

Baha'i Community Marks New Year

Members of the Baha'i Community of Canyon will join with millions of Baha'is around the world in observing Naw-Ruz, the Baha'i New Year, on March 21. Naw-Ruz translated means New Day.

The Baha'is from Canyon and Amarillo will observe Naw-Ruz with a supper on March 20 in the evening and a picnic on March 21 at Palo Duro Canyon. The Baha'i children of Canyon and Amarillo are excused from school on the Baha'i Holy Days, of which Naw-Ruz is one.

On the Baha'i calendar, this is the year 130. The Baha'i era, or calendar commenced with the year of the Bab's declaration of His mission, which is the year 1844 A.D., according to the Christian calendar. The Bab was the Prophet-Herald of the Baha'i Faith and lived in Iran from 1819 to 1850. He was followed by the Prophet-Founder of the Baha'i Faith, Baha'u'llah (Glory of God) Who lived much of His life in the Holy Land until His Ascension in 1892.

In its 130 years, the Baha'i Faith has spread to 333 countries and territories including 4,800 localities in the United States.

Woman Seeks Post On Happy School Board

For the first time ever, a woman has filed for a position on the Happy Independent School Board and is looking forward to the election set for April 7.

Mrs. LaVenna Jackson, 35-year-old mother, housewife and self-employed bookkeeper and tax consultant, said she was seeking the school post "because I am a woman and feel that it's time for a woman's opinion on the board."

Mrs. Jackson and her husband, Eugene, who is a contractor, moved to Happy from Plainview in 1961. They have four children, Debbie, 18, a freshman at West Texas State University; Billy, 17, a senior at Happy High School; Ronnie, 16, a sophomore at Happy; and Genie, 9, a third grader.

Mrs. Jackson, who keeps books for her husband's business, handles several full-time bookkeeping accounts and does income tax returns, said it was her experience in business and the fact that she had children in school that qualified her for a position on the board.

The candidate was born in Nebraska, her husband in Kansas. They now reside on the south edge of Happy.

Mrs. Jackson is a lifetime member of the Jaycee-Ettes; a member of the Order of the Eastern Star; Sec-Tres. of the American Legion Auxiliary; a member of the V.F.W. Auxiliary of Canyon; a past leader in the Brownie Scout and the 4-H programs; a member of the Happy Band Boosters and Happy Athletic Boosters, and a member of the First United Methodist Church of Happy.

She was also nominated as "Outstanding Young Woman of the Year" in 1971.

Mrs. Jackson graduated from Lepperts Business College in Plainview, gaining honors in typing and accounting. She said she hopes one day to become a Certified Public Accountant.

She and her husband also operated a restaurant in Tulia after first arriving in Texas in 1955.

Another reason given by Mrs. Jackson for seeking the school board position was her not wanting "to sit back and criticize." She said she felt that she should "try to do something about it."

She said that the statement that the young people of today will be the leaders of tomorrow will only be true if they are given proper education. "It's up to us grownups," she said of the need to provide that education.

"I am involved in the community and I want to be involved in the school," Mrs. Jackson said. She added that her running for the position, even if she fails, might cause another woman to decide to run in the future. "It might break the ice for someone who otherwise might not try," she added.

Mrs. LaVenna Jackson, the first woman candidate for the Happy School Board, is a housewife, bookkeeper and tax consultant.

Here, she is at work in her office attached to her home on the south edge of Happy.

Bullish on central air conditioning? Consider investing just a little more in a long-term, blue chip Gas air conditioning system.

Only a Gas air conditioning system pays you regular dividends for many happy years. That's because the heart of a Gas cooling system is a simple gas burner, rather than an electric, mechanical compressor. A clean-burning gas flame doesn't wear out — so there's less to go wrong, fewer maintenance calls, a longer life with no loss of original cooling capacity. And because natural gas is the prime energy source, you'll also save money on operating cost.

"I don't think we'd achieve the economies I'm talking about," he said. "It would be a lot more convenient but it would not solve the problem."

Simpson said he feels economies could be realized in the court system and in other areas if only one government controlled both counties.

"To me the solution is to get all of Amarillo into one county," he said, "and there are two ways to do that."

"One would be to combine the two counties and the other would be to detach a portion of Randall County from Randall County and attach it to Potter County."

The law, according to attorney Simpson, has provisions for just such a move through an election process.

Simpson admitted that in legal terms there is no provision for the combination of two counties into one county.

Democrat Bynum stirred a nest of controversy when he suggested two years ago the combination of the two counties for the sake of economy.

Bynum is not the representative from the Randall County area.

For the election to pass, a favorable vote from two-thirds of those voting would be required.

Dowlen said another statute states that "no county seat shall be moved from its present location until all warrants, bonds and any other debts incurred for the existing courthouse shall be paid in full."

That means, essentially, that the county seat could not be moved until the current outstanding bonds for construction of the new portion of the Canyon courthouse were paid in full.

Dowlen noted that each statute is subject to legislative change or scrutiny.

He said statutes also forbid the location of a main courthouse at any place other than the county seat of the county, since all functions of the county must, by law, operate from the county seat.

Records in the county auditor's office indicate that as of Feb. 28, 1973, a total of $312,750 in warrants and bonds are outstanding on the new courthouse annex in Canyon.

Auditor Betty Hodges said the bonds are not due to be paid in full until 1984.

County commissioners are currently considering a study of whether to refurbish or construct a new South Amarillo annex.

Winds traditionally play havoc with mobile homes and Tuesday was no exception as this new mobile home on the Warner Mobile Homes lot north of Canyon was picked up by in figuring the CISD bonded indebtedness and, should the transfer be made, the Amarillo district would have to assume a portion of the debt until it was paid off. The portion would be about 3 1/2 per cent, the superintendent said.

In other business, the board approved the school calendar for the 1973-74 school year. School is scheduled to begin August 22 and end May 31.

In addition to the September 3 Labor Day holiday and a November 9 closure for a teachers meeting, three longer holidays will be offered. Thanksgiving will be observed November 22 and 23, Christmas and New Years from December 21 through January 6, and Easter from April 6 through 15.

Students will also be dismissed on February 4 and March 1 while teachers are taking part in service work.

The next school year calendar is set up on the three quarter system as opposed to the old two semester system. It includes 180 school days for students and 190 working days for faculty members.

Mrs. Troyce Mulherin, president of the Gene Howe P.T.A., appeared before the board to call for curb and gutters on Lamont Street which parallels the South Amarillo school.

She said that the busy street is used by children going to and from school on foot and on bicycles and that the narrowness and lack of sidewalks makes their travel "hazardous and dangerous."

Mrs. Mulherin said she and her group had appealed to the Amarillo City Commission about the problem and had been assured that city engineers would conduct a study regarding the need and construction costs.

The city commission had promised to relay their findings to the P.T.A. when the study is completed, said the spokeswoman. She said she would forward the information to the Canyon School Board when it was received by her.

Board president Dr. Dudley Moore said the board would await the finding of the Amarillo study and he indicated that the board would be willing to cooperate in solving the problem.

According to Mrs. Mulherin, the school occupies about two blocks of the street, but she added that it should be rebuilt from Alamo Road to Hollywood Road, a distance of about one-half mile.

The heads of the school system's science department appeared before the board, explaining the strengths and weaknesses of their programs.

James Prock spoke for Rex Reeves Elementary, John Green for the junior high school, and Mrs. Treasure Brasher.

"Only one of the inspectors actually walked in a room to see what kind of condition it was in," he said.

York said the inspections amounted to little more than harassment—one inspection every six months with the inspector examining basically the same data each time.

The nursing home operator said the inspectors had the power to make on-the-spot decisions which would tie him up for hours and cost him countless dollars.

And, while under the gun from the inspectors, York said he had no avenue of appeal, no avenue to air grievances.

A majority of the respondents also favor an election of five faculty members—one from each college and school—to meet with candidates for the job.

Chairman of the board of regents Cloyce Box said last week during a Dallas board meeting that he anticipates the candidates will meet with representatives of the faculty and the student body in the near future.

In other portions of the Faculty Council survey, faculty members were asked various questions about tenure and other miscellaneous items.

Faculty members favor by a small majority awarding tenure to WTSU instructors. They also favor termination of tenure at age 65 with continued employment after the 65th birthday based on needs of the university.

Faculty members also believe department heads should be subject to systematic and periodic review by faculty of their own department.

A majority also favors the placement of the university salary and budget data in the WTSU library on a continuing basis.

Mandatory retirement age preferred by the majority of respondents was 65 and 70.

Don Max Vars, president of the First National Bank of Canyon, presenting a $50 check to Mrs. Hud Prichard. The check was awarded for having the oldest active checking account at the bank.

Bank Names Winners In "Oldest" Contest

A check written in 1903 and a checking account that has been active since 1922 have been judged winners in The Canyon First National Bank's contest.

The contest was sponsored by the bank in an effort to locate the oldest available check and to recognize the holder of the oldest active account.

A $500 check was presented Tuesday to Lem Fisher of 1611 6th Ave., and to Mrs. Hud Prichard of 910 6th Ave. Fisher had entered the 1903 check, written by his uncle, Willis L. Fisher. Mrs. Prichard accepted her award as the holder of the oldest account.

The presentations were made by Don Max Vars, president of the bank.

According to Fisher, his uncle had kept money in the First National Bank for at least 60 years before his death in 1963. "In those days, if you had $50 in the bank you had a lot of money," Fisher added.

Fisher said his uncle was 90 years old at the time of his death. Mrs. Prichard said when presented with the award check, "I couldn't believe it."

She said she and her late husband, a 41-year employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., opened the winning account.

Son Born To Galen Davises

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Davis of 4815 Hall in Amarillo announce the birth of their second son, Brandon Keith, on March 2. Brandon weighed 7 pounds 2 ounces.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ziegler of 411 Foster Lane in Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. M.N. Davis of 506 11th Ave. in Canyon.

The father is with Yellow Transit Co. of Amarillo.

The Davis' other son, Kendall Wayne, is 2 1/2.

While talking of checks, Mrs. Prichard said she had at home a check written to her husband by the government for payment on tires turned in during World War I. "It is for 17 cents," she said. "We never cashed it... my husband thought it was rather strange."

One of the more interesting entries which did not win was a check written in 1919 as payment for a "Ford Touring Car." The amount of the check was $575. According to the entrant, the car purchased was "almost new."

In all, ten checks dated from the winning year of 1903 to 1956 were entered. A check dated in 1911 was the second oldest of the lot.

One check, dated in 1914, was in the amount of $150 and had been returned to the Canyon bank via the Lockwood National Bank in San Antonio and the First National Bank of Amarillo. Another, issued in 1928, had been used to pay local taxes. The amount was $12.

Included in the entrants were checks for payment of a utility bill and a personal note.

Most of the checks entered appeared larger than the standard check of today and many offered a considerable amount of fancy artwork. The entry from 1911 came closest to matching the checks being used today.

Several of the checks entered indicated that more care was taken in penmanship but even the neatest ones were difficult to make out, primarily because of "fanciness" or unusual abbreviations.

Vars termed the contest a success and he expressed the bank's appreciation for those who took the time and effort to dig out the old documents and enter them. "It was a fun thing and we enjoyed it."

According to Vars, the contest also produced many old bank items other than checks. "When the contest was first announced, people came in with old notes, bank statements and deposit slips. We really enjoyed looking over the old names and papers," he said.

L. Markham, local veterinarian.

Each candidate will be given five minutes to speak to the audience, and then the meeting will be thrown open to questions from the audience directed at the candidates. The moderator for the meeting has not yet been selected.

Coffee and cookies will be served as people arrive by members of AAUW and the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Mary Jane Reeves of AAUW is chairman for the "Candidates Night." She is being assisted by Mrs. Shirley Donnell and Mrs. Marion Thompson of the Women's Division of the Chamber, and Mrs. Jane Munsell and Dr. Ruth Lowes of AAUW.

SORRY I DIDN'T have a column last week, but I had a combination of the London, Hong Kong and Kung Fu Flu! Our whole family was sick last week.

A GROUP OF Canyon women recently returned from a trip into Mexico. Margaret Wilkinson, Helen Reynolds, Flossie Johnson, Mary B. Weeks, Grace Knighton, Martha Goodman, Ethel Michael and Florine Moore took the trip. The ladies drove to El Paso, took a bus to Chihuahua, and then boarded a train that went to Las Mochas and back. The train went through 87 tunnels and across 39 bridges and the railroad took 60 years to build. While in Las Mochas, the group visited Poncho Villa's home and had their pictures taken with Villa's widow. They took a boat trip out into the Pacific. Sounds like they had quite a trip.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MISS Canyon for 1973—Donna Stark. Dean Kelly did a fine job of emceeing the pageant and the spring fashions shown were beautiful.

THE WOMEN'S DIVISION of the Chamber of Commerce has several interesting events coming up soon. On March 26th the American Association of University Women (AAUW) and the Women's Division have a forum planned for all school board candidates. There will be short speeches and a question and answer session.

A salad supper for all members of the Women's Division will be held on April 3. Any woman interested in joining is certainly welcome to the supper. You do not have to be in the business world or your husband does not have to be a chamber member for you to join. This is a great opportunity for all women to become active in their town and help to improve it. I will give the times and places for these two events in a later column.

The chamber has candle bases and chimneys for rent at a low cost for anyone needing decorations for banquets or anything. If you are interested call Virginia Cotton at 655-4010 or call the Chamber of Commerce for information.

I WENT TO a lovely tea given by the Heritage Study Club Sunday. Someone had made those pecan pastries that won the Pillsbury Bake-Off this year. They were scrumptious.

THERE HAVE BEEN several groups fishing in Mexico recently. Aubrey Crossland and J.D. Byrd were among the Canyon fishermen.

DON and KAREN Sheffy just got back from a trip to Jamaica! Don won the trip in a company contest. He works for Dow Chemical. They went deep-sea fishing. No fish were caught but the trip out to sea was great. We will all be envious when we see Don's and Karen's spring suits.

CHARLIE and NORA Gerald had a harrowing experience last week. They were flying home from Pittsburgh, New Jersey where they had visited their daughter, Janet, son-in-law, Davis Price, and grandson, Jeremy, when they had a crash landing in Wichita, Kansas. They had to use the emergency exit chutes to get out of the plane quickly in case of an explosion. We are all glad to have the Gerald's home safe and sound.

Y'ALL TRY TO stay healthy now, it won't be long until spring chases most of the bugs away—of course then we will cope with hay fever, allergies, sunburns, etc. But at least the sun will be shining. Beth Ramsey and I have been trying to get on the golf course for about a month, but every time we plan a game—there is either a sudden deluge of rain or something fouling things up. Oh well, maybe this week.

If you have any news give me a ring — 655-9978 or 655-7131.

Those who will display their works are Mrs. Lila Bennett, Mrs. Vivian Christal, Mrs. Eula Donnell, Mrs. Anna Ruth Erwin, Mrs. Flora Finegan, Mrs. Jessie Jennings, Mrs. Lorene Justiss, Mrs. Jewel May, Mrs. Frances May, Mrs. Melvin May, Mrs. Ora Morgan, Mrs. Betty Todd, Mrs. Lois Toney, and Mrs. Merle White.

All persons interested in china and china painting are invited to attend.

Theft Suspects Under Multiple Investigation

Four young Amarillo women arrested Tuesday in connection with the theft of a purse from the Western Auto Store in Canyon are also being investigated for a possible connection with the Saturday theft of about $160 from the Tweedledee shop.

The four were taken into custody by Amarillo police at Western Plaza shopping center late Tuesday as a result of information provided by the Canyon Police Department.

The arrest came after Canyon patrolman Robert Seals, off duty and with his children in his personal car, became suspicious of four women leaving the Western Auto Store. Thinking they might have been involved in the Saturday incident at Tweedledee, the off-duty officer followed them to another Canyon shop.

Seals said he went into the store behind the quartet, warned the owner and then telephoned for assistance from on-duty officers.

Apparently becoming suspicious of Seals' actions, the four women ran from the store, got into their car and proceeded north on U.S. 87 toward Amarillo.

As the suspects were departing Canyon, Patrolman Tom Sanford reported that a similar group of women had possibly taken a purse from the Western Auto Store just minutes earlier.

Armed with a description and license number provided by Seals, Amarillo officers later located the suspects and made the arrest.

According to officers, a purse belonging to Mrs. O. W. Parker which had been taken from the Western Auto Store at about the time Seals first spotted the women was found in the suspects' possession. Also found was a billfold belonging to a Tulsa woman, who said she first missed it while shopping in Canyon earlier in the day.

At Tweedledee on Saturday, clerk Elaine Peoples reported to police that four persons had entered the store about 5 p.m. and that one had asked to see baby clothes. Mrs. Peoples said that while she was showing one of the women the clothing at the rear of the store, the customer suddenly changed her mind and the four left.

About 45 minutes later, while Mrs. Peoples was preparing to make the daily cash report, the money was discovered missing from the cash drawer.

According to Mrs. Peoples, the four women were in the store for about three or four minutes. "I didn't see anybody take it," she said.

The women left the store running, said Mrs. Peoples. "But it was raining and so was

Scabies Bill Given House By Rep. Poff

State Rep. Bryan Poff has introduced two new bills in the legislature — one for reform of current laws regarding cattle scabies and another for formation of a juvenile board in the county.

Poff said the scabies bill is an adjunct to a bill introduced earlier in the session by Rep. Dean Cobb.

The scabies bill would exempt cattle feedlots from dipping requirements and give a 30-day grace period during which cattle shipped into a quarantined area from a non-quarantined area could be dipped.

Cobb's earlier bill allowed for spraying of cattle rather than dipping for the eradication of scabies.

The Poff bill for establishment of a juvenile board would appoint Dist. Judges Don Dean and Gene Jordan and County Judge Woody Pond as a juvenile board with authority to select the county's juvenile judge.

Currently, Dean is juvenile judge of the county.

Mrs. Caldwell, 70, Nears End Of Struggle For M.S.

Marcia Caldwell was amazed to find herself the guest of honor at a recent supper of Writers of the Golden Spread.

"I wondered who she was talking about, and not until she was practically finished did it dawn on me that it was I," said the 70-year-old graduate student.

Kathleen Collins, mentor of the WAGS group, was paying tribute to the sheer gumption of the grandmother about to receive her master's degree who ten years ago had found herself widowed, practically blind, and without even a high school diploma. About 40 of her friends and acquaintances were gathered in the Amarillo home of George and Rosemary Kohlmar that evening to applaud her effort and present her with a gift, a king-sized dictionary.

But Mrs. Caldwell herself makes little of her struggles to achieve an education. "It wasn't courage or determination or anything like that. I just simply had to have something to do."

Her story speaks for itself.

Mr. and Mrs. H.T. Caldwell had lived 37 active and involved years in Channing, Texas, when in 1936 he died suddenly of a stroke. Her children were grown and educated, all teachers at that time.

"I had always been sort of helpless and depended on him to make the decisions. But without him I knew I would have to depend on God to make my decisions," she commented. Clinging to the old pattern of life, she tried to continue their business interests for about a year. Then she sold or gave away their property and possessions and decided to devote her time to an ailing sister who lived in Big Springs. However, a severe foot injury forced her to give up even this useful occupation.

Marcia Caldwell had too much vitality to resign herself to a rocking chair. Yet the avenues open to her were severely limited by her blindness. She has never been able to drive a car, for example, and she can see only by holding something about three inches from her eyes.

"I've always been like this all my life, even as a child," she says matter-of-factly. "I've learned how to get along, living by intuition and deduction. It is a matter of using the faculties I have, and I just don't worry about it any more. I am just so grateful that I am not totally blind."

Nevertheless, Mrs. Caldwell decided in 1966 to attack the problem of her lack of formal education. Hearing about a High School Equivalency Test given by the Texas Education Association, she took the test and passed it. In fact, her score was so good that the test supervisor, an official of Howard County Junior College, encouraged her to enroll in courses there.

Thus it was that the Canyon woman's picture was included in the "Who's Who" section of the 1967 Jayhawker, the Howard County Junior College annual, with a brief notation. "Marcia Caldwell was another freshman who made the Who's Who section. After finishing at Howard County Junior College, she plans on entering West Texas State University at Canyon. She is majoring in psychology. Her nine grandchildren would be proud of her."

Actually, another sudden adversity in the life of the elderly student caused her to decide to enroll at WTSU.

"I had met a teacher at the junior college who persuaded me to go into the Peace Corps with her when I finished there." But on January 17 of her second year she broke a hip and had to be hospitalized in Lubbock where her son lived. Even this blow did not halt the drive to complete her education. "They made a walker for me, and I was back in class on Feb. 4."

Mrs. Caldwell wrote a note of appreciation to the many people who helped her complete that school term and it was printed in the college newspaper. "Everywhere I go there is a friendly hand to help and guide me over the rough places. I am humbled and yet uplifted because of what has been done for me. It continues to be a joyous experience."

She enrolled at West Texas State University, living at Cousins Hall, and received her degree in the summer of 1969.

Thinking she might be able to teach the blind, Mrs. Caldwell went to a school for the blind in Kerrville, Texas, in the fall of 1969 and learned braille. But unfortunately, the plucky grandmother with the youthful outlook was considered too old to teach.

"I would just have loved to live out my life there helping those people. It was so much fun," she said.

However, the State Commission for the Blind agreed to assist Mrs. Caldwell in returning to WTSU for graduate study. Feeling she had no time to lose, she boarded a bus and headed to Canyon to make out her degree plan and get the necessary papers signed. She arrived on a Friday afternoon and recalls how helpful were the department heads, Dr. Roberts, Dr. Guy, and Dr. Sullivan. "They were just beautiful!"

Since she enrolled in graduate school in the spring of 1970 as a history major and English minor, Mrs. Caldwell has maintained a Bachelor's degree in May.

Marcia Caldwell lives in a modest apartment within walking distance of the campus and grocery stores. She has accustomed herself to allotting almost twice the normal time to cover the extensive reading required in her studies. Her only aid is a magnifying eyepiece that she uses, bending very close to each page.

Mrs. Caldwell's life has been enriched by many friends made while attending the university, and children and grandchildren live in Amarillo and Lubbock. Her son-in-law, Merle Dickerson, is principal at Pleasant Valley School in Amarillo and her daughter teaches at Belmar School. She enjoys friends made at the Methodist Church, especially Mr. and Mrs. George Bulman who have been so faithful in driving her to services and showing their concern in other ways.

What are her plans for the future?

"I just live a day at a time now," she answers. "I wouldn't be surprised though if I might not stay right here in Canyon—and take an occasional course just for the fun of it."

Mrs. Marcia Caldwell

Lecture Series To Feature Kahler

The second in a series of lectures on Latin America Today will be presented at 8 p.m. today by Dr. John Kahler, professor of history at West Texas State University.

The series is presented jointly by the WTSU El Chicano Club and the department of modern languages.

The presentation will be in room 216 of the university activities center.

Dr. Kahler is expected to speak on the northern colonial frontier of Mexico during the three centuries of the colonial era of Nueva Espana and during the much briefer time under Mexican rule.

A teacher of history at WTSU since 1951, Dr. Kahler will be teaching a course in Latin American history next fall.

CHS Track Eagles In Muck

The Canyon High School boy's track team took part in a meet at Sunray this past weekend and found most of the competition in the form of rain, snow and cold wind.

CHS thinclads entered only six track events before dropping out due to the inclement weather. There were no field events held, said coach Ron Mills.

David Anderson tied for third place in the 100-yard dash; Steve Williams was fourth in the 440; Raby Ratliff was fifth in the 220; and the sprint relay team of Anderson, Williams, Ratliff and Gary Bednorz finished in second place.

Of the 12 teams entered, only about six were around when all events were completed.

According to Mills, Canyon did not enter any of the distance events, either individually or as teams.

The Eagles will travel to Perryton Saturday for a meet set to begin at 9 a.m. Mills said some eight teams are expected in the Class AAA Division. The coach added that Canyon will be competing only against AAA schools rather than all classifications as during recent meets.

About 40 boys and girls signed up for the Kids Inc., track program Monday night, and another registration session will be held Thursday at 4 p.m. at Conner Park, league officials said.

Roundup Chairman Max Brummett said workouts will also be held at the park Thursday afternoon. "Any boy or girl who wants to take part in the track program should be there to sign up and get in on the first workouts of the season," he added.
